Why Study Chinese

- ✍ Language of 1/6th of humanity. You're likely to use this language anywhere in the world.
- ✍ Research shows that the study of Chinese develops both sides of the brain, unlike most other languages.
- ✍ The 21st century belongs to China and India. Business between the two countries is booming. In a few years, China will be India's largest trading partner. There is a huge shortage of Indians with Chinese language skills.
- ✍ Since Chinese is a pictographic script, there is an aesthetic aspect to the language. Chinese calligraphy is a much appreciated art worldwide.
- ✍ Learning Chinese makes you stand out. How many people do you know who speak Chinese?!
- ✍ Chinese is interesting and fun. Chinese words are formed by a combination of meanings. For example, "crisis" is "danger + opportunity".

Language Courses

CLI believes that intensive courses are the best way to study a unique language like Chinese. Each course is run over a period of 8 weeks. There are three 8-week courses in each beginner, intermediate and advanced level. The courses focus on conversation and practical usage, with adequate attention to writing and reading.

Other Services

- ✍ Chinese universities are throwing their doors open to foreign students to study language, medicine, engineering and other subjects. CLI arranges language study trips and provides consultancy on studying in China.
- ✍ We provide Chinese translation services at reasonable cost.
- ✍ For corporate clients, CLI can provide language courses on-location.
